Comparing the base document H.R. 1815, as reported, with the Rules Committee Print 116-34

This document was computer-generated in an effort to show how two versions of the same legislative text differ and may not have been reviewed for accuracy. This document may comply with clause 12(b) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House. This document does not represent an official expression by the House and should not be relied on as an authoritative delineation of the proposed change(s) to existing law.

Omitted text is shown stricken, new matter that is proposed is in underlined italics, and existing text in which no change is being proposed is shown in regular roman. Typesetting and stylistic characteristics, particularly in the headings and indentations, may not conform to how the text, if adopted, would be illustrated in subsequent versions of legislation or public law.

Section 1. Short title
This Act may be cited as the "SEC Disclosure Effectiveness Testing Act".

Sec. 2. Disclosure testing
(a) In general.—
Section 23(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78w(a)) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"(4) Investor testing.—

"(A) In general.— The Commission shall engage in investor testing prior to issuing any rule or regulation which designates documents or information to be disclosed under the securities laws, if such documents or information—

(i) are primarily used by retail investors, as determined by the Commission; and

(ii) are intended to be used by retail investors to make informed investment decisions or to understand are required to be delivered to, and are intended or substantially likely to be materially relied upon by, a retail investor when—

(i) selecting a broker-dealer or investment adviser, evaluating their services and fees, or materially altering a brokerage or advisory relationship;

(ii) assessing a securities recommendation or investment advice provided by a broker-dealer or investment adviser;

(iii) making a decision to purchase or sell a security; or

(iv) such other circumstances as the Commission may, with input from the Investor Advocate, determine appropriate for the protection of retail investors.

"(B) Contents.— Investor testing conducted pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall include the following:

(i) Qualitative testing in the form of one-on-one cognitive interviews of retail investors about documents or information, or samples of such documents or information, to be provided.

Exemption for certain disclosures.— This section shall not apply to—

(i) disclosures made pursuant to Regulations S-K and S-X (including Industry Guides), Regulation 14A, Form N-PX, Form 10-K, Form 10-Q, Form 8-K, Form SD, Form N-PORT, Form PF, Regulation SBSR, disclosures mandated by or jointly with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Financial Stability Oversight Council, or successors thereto; or

(ii) any other documents or information that the Commission, with input from the Investor Advocate, determines are outside the intended scope and purposes of this Act.

(ii) A nationwide survey of retail investors, designed to complement the interviews under clause (i), on—

October 7, 2019 (9:02 a.m.)
Contents.—Investor testing conducted pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall include the following:

"(i) Qualitative testing in the form of one-on-one cognitive interviews of retail investors about documents or information, or samples of such documents or information, to be provided.

"(ii) Such other forms of testing that the Commission, with input from the Investor Advocate, deems appropriate for evaluating the effectiveness of retail disclosures.

"(iii) Analysis and publication in the Federal Register of the results of the survey and interviews testing.

"(iv) An opportunity for the public to comment on such results published in the Federal Register.

"(E) Substantive changes.—If the Commission, in the period between engaging in investor testing and publishing a final rule, makes substantive changes to such rule that the Commission determines would have a significant impact on retail investors, and such changes were not already investor tested, the Commission shall again engage in investor testing related to such changes.

"(F) Public availability of retail testing results.—The Commission shall make the data and results of any investor testing performed pursuant to this paragraph available to the public.

"(G) Rules of construction.—

"(i) The determination that some or all of a document or information is deemed to be subject to section 2 shall not forestall the determination that such document or information may also be used or relied upon by the public, market participants other than retail investors, or government agencies.

"(ii) The Commission may, in consultation with the Investor Advocate, determine which, if any, components of such document or information are substantially likely to be relied on by retail investors for the purposes outlined in paragraph 4(A) above and focus testing under section 2 on those components of the disclosure.

"(iii) Notwithstanding clause (ii) above, where any information subject to testing under section 2 may be used or relied upon by the public, market participants other than retail investors, or government agencies, the results of testing made pursuant to section 2 shall not provide grounds for reducing or eliminating (including any undermining of reliability of and accountability for) the information that existing or proposed regulation requires or would require be made available to the public, market participants other than retail investors, and government agencies, whether or not such information is delivered to retail investors."
(2) by adding at the end the following:

"(9) Publication of data and results of investor testing.— With respect to any investor testing carried out by the Investor Advocate pursuant to paragraph (4)(E), the Investor Advocate may make the data and results of such investor testing available to the public, and without further review or editing by the Commission.

"(10) Personnel.— If the Investor Advocate decides, within its sole discretion, to conduct testing under this Section, the Investor Advocate may do so and the Commission shall provide the Office of the Investor Advocate with sufficient personnel and funding necessary to carry out such testing. Such testing may qualify as the testing covered by this section, provided that all requirements of the section are met."

(c) Prior rules.—

(1) In general.— For any final rule or regulation issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (in this subsection referred to as the "Commission") before the date of the enactment of this Act that would be subject to investor testing under section 23(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, had such rule been issued on or after the date of enactment of this Act, the Commission shall perform investor testing with respect to such rule or regulation that includes the contents described in such section 23(a)(4).

(2) Schedule.— The Commission shall, not later than 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, establish a schedule for completing any investor testing required under paragraph (1) that prioritizes testing of any final rules and regulations that designate documents or information central to retail investor decision making, and in particular prioritize the testing of documents or information required to be delivered to retail investors in the form of summary documents or summary sections of documents including for the purpose of determining whether and how such summary documents can achieve the goals of informed investor decision-making in the circumstances set forth in paragraph 4(A) above while maintaining full accessibility by retail investors, the public, other market participants, and government regulators to the full range of documents and information that they may utilize or rely on, whether or not such documents or information are required to be delivered to retail investors.

(3) Report.— The Commission shall issue a report to Congress each year containing the following:

(A) The status of any investor testing required under paragraph (1), initiated within the last year or otherwise ongoing.

(B) The results of any investor testing completed under paragraph (1) within the last year.

(C) Any priorities the Commission has, based on results of investor testing required by paragraph (1), for—

(i) revising or eliminating any proposed or final rule or regulation designating documents or information based on the results of testing pursuant to section 2;

(ii) initiating any rulemaking or actions to be provided to retail investors arising from the results of the testing pursuant to section 2; and

(iii) revising any other final rule or regulation to supplement revised or eliminated rules designating documents or information to be provided to retail investors the Investor Advocate's views on the above priorities and any such other matters arising from the testing or results of testing pursuant to section 2.
