

Bill Napier, LPC has more than 30 years of experience in retail loss prevention, passionately serving others in leadership roles such as site security manager, corporate manager and director. Businesses he's worked with have included small and growing retail chains as well as Fortune 500 companies. For more than 18 years, Napier has also been in the retail outdoor arena with responsibility for ATF compliance and firearms related security and investigations. He is a guest speaker for groups such as the National Shooting Sports Foundation's (NSSF's) SHOT Show, National Retail Federation (NRF), Retail Industry Leaders Association (RILA), Retail Technology (RETECH), ASIS International and The Loss Prevention Foundation. His byline and name have appeared in various retail-related magazine articles on such topics as emerging security technology, return fraud, physical security and leadership. Additionally, Napier has spent 20 years in municipal law enforcement. He volunteered as a hunter education instructor in Nebraska, served on the ASIS Retail Loss Prevention Council and is a member of its Critical Infrastructure Working Group. Napier currently is involved with The Loss Prevention Research Council at University of Florida and is a member of its Violent Crime Working Group and he sits on the board of directors for The Loss Prevention Foundation and is Loss Prevention Certified (LPC).