

Charles Luster is a native of Flint, Michigan and a longtime resident of the City of Worcester. Mr. Luster is the Founder / Executive Director of 2Gether WE Eat, a youth hydroponic farming program that focuses on STEM, Youth Development, Food Deserts, and Food Insecurities.

Mr. Luster is a Veteran of the United State Armed Forces, He is also a retired service splice technician of Verizon. He is the former Men Head Coach of Quinsigamond Community College and a Asst. Coach at Becker College. He has also taught at Central Mass Academy which is a Therapeutic High School in the City of Worcester. Mr. Luster has been a community activist in the city working on projects such as MLK BLVD, The Black Unity Group, Member of NAACP, Vet POST 312, and Major Taylor Project.

Mr. Luster has been a businessman in Worcester for several years, with Allure Hair Design, and The Crescent Cafe. Mr. Luster is a committee member for the Democratic committee for the City of Worcester. He believes that every citizen in the United States should have the right to take advantage of the opportunities in America.

Mr. Luster is the husband of Former City Councilor Stacey Luster, and loving father of four children, and grandfather of three grandchildren. He is and will continue to mentor and coach our youth throughout Worcester.